May 17, 2007 • 6:30 - 9:00 pm • Loyola University - Kasbeer Hall

Prevention Partnership is celebrating eighteen years of service to the community in providing comprehensive, culturally diverse prevention and education services in areas such as alcohol and other drug abuse, HIV/AIDS, anger management, violence, and peer leadership. Each year Prevention Partnership, Inc., salutes those special people whose actions have made Chicago safer, healthier and in other ways, a better place. On its twentieth anniversary, Prevention Partnership will salute two of the community's finest supporters of prevention and health promotion efforts.

Prevention Person of The Year Award

Carol L. Adams, Ph.D.

Secretary of Human Services - State of Illinois

Appointed by Governor Rod Blagojevich in February 2003, this former executive director of Northeastern Illinois University’s undergraduate and graduate Center for Inner City Studies is a career public servant and public policy innovator who has, for more than 30-years, made substantial contributions to human services, community development, sociological research and African-American education and culture. At the Illinois Department of Human Services, Dr. Adams directs the state’s human services programs, with a staff complement of more than 13,000 people and a $4 billion budget. The agency offers services at more than 300-locations statewide. Its major components are: Alcoholism and Substance Abuse, Community Health and Prevention, Developmental Disabilities, Human Capital Development, Mental Health, and Rehabilitation Services.

VC League Community Service Award

Ronald E. “Kwesi” Harris

Ronald E. “Kwesi” Harris is the Administration Program Director of the Prevention Department at The Bobby E. Wright Comprehensive Behavioral Health Center in Chicago. Mr. Harris is a founding member of the Citywide Coalition Against Tobacco & Alcohol Billboards. Mr. Harris is widely respected in the community among other topics, for his workshops and lectures explaining how many of the targeted marketing campaigns and images of so-called “corporate responsibility” are actually designed to market deadly products in a socially acceptable manner and how community members can learn how to identify, monitor and defend against these industry tactics in their communities. He is also a certified ATOD prevention specialist, a native Chicagoan and a graduate of Central State University in Ohio.

PEOPLE WILL GATHER AT LOYOLA UNIVERSITY for an awards dinner to publicly salute these two special people, all of who have, in his or her own unique way, made Chicago a better place to live, learn, work, and play.

YOU, TOO, CAN SALUTE THEM by adding your name or that of your company/organization in the Souvenir Program Book for the Twentieth Anniversary Awards Dinner, jointly sponsored by Loyola University, Center for the Advancement of Research, Training and Education and The Prevention Partnership, Inc.

We have suggested a few sample messages on the back of this page in the hope it will encourage you to publicly join us in this salute.
